

Shaft clamping block

Shaft clamping block – straight

Shaft clamping block – 90°

Application

A high-precision linear bearing system can be created very easily with the components, i.e. the shaft clamping block, the linear bearing block and the steel shaft. As there are two different shaft clamping blocks, the system can be assembled flexibly. The fixing centres combine well with the PVS extrusions.

Specification

Aluminium, anodised in natural colours

Order data	Order number
------------	--------------

Shaft clamping block – straight L16-60

Shaft clamping block – 90° L16-65